

IAPD Market Share Research Study

1. Welcome

IAPD is committed to providing valuable industry and benchmarking data that will help member companies improve their business. The following Market Share Research Study specifically seeks to identify the total size of the NAFTA plastics stock shapes market (sheet, rod, tube and films), as well as the pipe, valves and fittings market.

The 2009 Market Share Study should be based on year-end 2008 data. Please report your company's production volumes and capacities for all grades of product produced by the method of manufacture. For example: clear and color products, impact modified, mirror and textures. Please report capacity based on a normal mix of products produced.

This data survey will include all manufacturers who ship plastic products to or within the North American market. Please report your company's shipment to the NAFTA market, but not your sales to the rest of the globe.

Be assured that individual company data will be kept strictly confidential and will not be viewed by IAPD staff or its members. An outside firm has been retained to tabulate the data so that all information remains in the strictest confidence.

The aggregate data will be shared at no cost to all IAPD members and participating nonmembers. Thank you for taking the time to share this information.
