Dear Chairmen and Ranking Members:

As Congress confronts the challenge of reforming the tax code to make American businesses more competitive, the undersigned organizations representing thousands of S corporations, partnerships and sole proprietorships offer the following three principles to help guide your efforts.

First, tax reform needs to be comprehensive. Most private sector workers are employed at pass-through businesses that pay taxes at the individual rates, not the corporate rates. To ensure that we avoid harming a large segment of American employers, tax reform needs to be comprehensive and include both the individual and the corporate tax codes.

Second, Congress needs to keep the tax rates paid by individuals and corporations at similar, low levels. The resolution of the fiscal cliff resulted in individuals and pass-through businesses paying, for the first time in a decade, a significantly higher top marginal tax rate than C corporations. Splitting business income and taxing it at different rates penalizes pass-through businesses and encourages planning to circumvent the higher rates, ultimately resulting in wasted resources and lower growth. To ensure that tax reform results in a simpler, fairer and competitive tax code, Congress needs to keep top tax rates low, and it needs to keep them at similar levels.

Third, Congress should continue to reduce the incidence of double taxing business income. A recent study by Ernst & Young made clear that the predominance of pass-through businesses in the United States, and the single layer of tax they face, results in higher levels of investment and employment. This prevalence of pass-through taxation is the result of purposeful and explicit reforms enacted by Congress over the past half-century. A key goal of tax reform should be to continue this progress to tax business income only once.
By embracing these broad concepts, Congress can move the taxation of business income in a direction that helps ensure that all employers, regardless of how they are organized, are able to invest and create jobs here in America.

We appreciate your consideration of these priorities.

Sincerely,
