

NAM COVID-19 Update
April 6, 2020

There are a number of areas where the NAM continues to press forward for manufacturers, but today we want to highlight once again the resources to help manufacturers who are applying for Paycheck Protection Program loans. We want to make sure everyone has access to this tool to find local financial institutions that are eligible lenders for the program:

<https://www.sba.gov/paycheckprotection/find>

You can also access application forms from the Treasury Department for borrowers (<https://home.treasury.gov/system/files/136/Paycheck-Protection-Program-Application-3-30-2020-v3.pdf>) and lenders participating in the PPP:

<https://home.treasury.gov/system/files/136/PPP-Lender-Application-Form-Fillable.pdf>

You can learn more about how to qualify and apply for PPP loans and how to utilize other loans and tax credits for manufacturers in our NAM overview here:

You may also want to mark your calendar for this call on Wednesday:

NAM–Manufacturing Leadership Council Call on Resiliency Strategies

The NAM and MLC are hosting a call Wednesday, April 8, at 2:00 p.m. EDT on how you can navigate disruptions to working arrangements around the world and the ever-changing expectations of customers, employees and governments during the COVID-19 pandemic. This call will be an opportunity to get helpful insights on everything from supply chain management to accessing working capital. Register for the call here:

We will continue reporting out additional developments and valuable information. For now, please keep visiting the regularly updated nam.org/coronavirus site for the latest information, including state-specific resources, and email our Response Team at responseteam@nam.org with any questions or feedback.

Best,

Jay
