Performance Plastics magazine is published bi-monthly by the International Association of Plastics Distribution (IAPD) and is distributed throughout North America and internationally to executive level management and decision-making purchasers in the plastics distribution and fabrication industry. Total circulation is approximately 10,000. Performance Plastics magazine is the best place to promote and advertise your company to the entire plastics distribution channel: resin manufacturers, semi-finished plastics manufacturers, distributors, fabricators, recyclers, OEMs, designers, specifiers and engineers.
